The tables supplied below for instructions for the Proxy refer to draft resolutions included alongside the published notice of convening of the Annual General Meeting. The Company's Management Board cautions that the draft resolutions may differ from the resolutions put to vote directly at the Company's Annual General Meeting. Thus, it is recommended that Proxy be instructed how to proceed in such case.

The Grantor's instruction is issued by inserting "X" where appropriate. In the event of further instructions, the Grantor shall fill in the "Further/Other Instructions" rubric indicating how the voting right is to be exercised by the proxy.

If the Grantor decides to vote its shares in a different manner, in the space provided he shall indicate the number of shares that the proxy is to vote "for", "against" or "abstained" . If the number of shares is not specified as requested, the proxy is deemed to be authorised to vote as instructed on all of the Shareholder's shares.
